Memorial Day Weekend is here. We take a moment to thank and remember those who have scarified their lives serving our country. As you remember those who have served, be thankful. Despite everything going on in the world, we have so many things to be thankful for. Today we are thankful that it’s Fun Friday. In keeping with the theme of being thankful, we are thankful for the music of Little Richard and in remembrance of a musician who was always the life of the party, we end this week with our Fun Friday dance to “Good Golly Miss Molly”
